

➔ Booking Form

Scotland 2008 Evening CPD Meetings

Course Details (please tick) - all courses from 7:30pm to 10pm:

- Interpreting Abdominal Radiographs in Small Animal Practice (£60).
Wednesday 17th September 2008
Course Tutor: Gawain Hammond, Lecturer, Glasgow Veterinary School
- Diagnosis and Therapeutics of Liver Disease in Practice (£60).
Wednesday 29th October 2008
Course Tutor: Mark Jackson, Glasgow Veterinary School
- Cardiac Therapeutics for Small Animal Practice (£60).
Wednesday 26th November 2008
Meeting Tutor: Paul Wotton, Head of Cardiology, Glasgow Vet School
- Advance registration for all three evening meetings (£150).

Delegate name:

Title:

Qualifications:

Practice Name:

Address:

Postcode:

Contact Tel:

Fax:

E-mail:

Course Venues: Cumbernauld - The Westerwood Hotel

Registration includes course tuition, notes and light evening buffet.

Special Requirements (e.g. Vegetarian):

Total fee (enclosed):

Please return the completed form with a cheque payable to Vet Extra Ltd to:

Vet Extra Ltd, 20 New Endrick Road, Killearn, Glasgow, G63 9QT.

Tel 07816 684917

E-mail: info@vet-extra.co.uk

For Office Use Only:

Invoice number:

Date received:

VetExtra CPD course terms and conditions:

Places on all courses are limited and are allocated on a first come first served basis. Payment for all courses must be made in full at the time of booking. Places on courses cancelled up to 4-weeks prior to a day-meeting and 2-weeks prior to an evening meetings will incur a 15% administration fee. Refunds for cancellations within 4-weeks of a day-meeting and 2-weeks of an evening meeting will be at the discretion of VetExtra. Cancellations must be made in writing and delegates must ring to ensure their cancellation has been received. Course booking can be transferred to a different delegate at no additional charge. VetExtra reserves the right to alter the programme, speaker, date and venue should this be necessary. In the event of cancellation of a course by VetExtra, course fees will be refunded in full, but VetExtra will not be responsible for travel, accommodation or any other expenses incurred by delegates.